Preface

This report is the 1st publication of Census of Population and Housing Volume 3: Constituency Data, derived from the 7th population census report of the kingdom since 1956 and the 5th census conducted by the Statistics Department. The census is the official count of population, dwellings and households in Tonga and provides a ‘snapshot’ of the country as of midnight the 30th of November 2011. It is conducted under the authority of Section 8 of the Statistical Act 31 of 1978 Chapter 53.

The census provides a unique source of detailed demographic, social and economic data which will facilitate the decision makers in Tonga with respect to the current and future socio-economic conditions in the Kingdom. It is often used as the primary source of information for policy making and planning, including allocation of public funding for health and education. It is also used for monitoring and evaluation, research and other decision-making.

The 2011 Census is the first population census to be conducted at a 5 year interval, the previous census occurring in 2006. Prior to this, censuses were conducted on a 10-yearly basis. The decision to conduct a census after 5 years came as a result of the Electoral Boundary Commission Act of 2010.

Given that the next General Election is set to occur in November 2014, the Statistics Department decided to honour the request of the Electoral Boundary Commission in the interests of the Kingdom as a whole. The Department also decided to continue to conduct all future censuses on a 5 yearly basis.

Further, the 2011 Census is the first to include a third volume containing population and household data categorised by voting constituency in accordance to part 2 of the Electoral Boundary Commission’s request (see page x for further information). Data configured by constituency will be used by the Commission among other users in preparation for the next General Election in regards to decision-making around infrastructure and allocation of funds.

In order to provide a point of comparison with previous years, data from the 2006 census was configured into electoral constituencies and serves as a benchmark to the latest census data.

Since the improvement of the statistical database of the Kingdom is a continuous function of the Statistics Department, we would welcome any constructive comments and suggestions from users for future improvement of the contents, coverage and quality of the population census reports.

* Consistent with international definition of unemployed, it includes those who did not work but were looking and available to work

 Adjusted to also include discouraged workers

 Adjusted to also include subsistence and discouraged workers

Discourage workers includes those who believed no work was available, or because of weather conditions, or could not afford transport costs

Executive Summary

The Census executive summary is shown in volume 2, and this summary is at the constituency level.

The 2011 Census was requested by the Electoral Boundary Commission according to the Electoral Boundary Commission Act (EBCA 2010). There are 17 constituencies: 10 in Tongatapu, two in Ha'apai, three in Vavau'u and one each in 'Eua and Onga Niua. The distribution of population within constituencies is based on where people were enumerated and the geographical boundary of each constituency.

There were 103,252 people enumerated in Tonga on Census night at mid-night of 30 November 2011. Of these, 51,979 were male and 51,273 were female. This reflected an increase in the population by 1.2% (1,261 people) from 101,991 people enumerated in the census of 2006.

This is the first census to include the constituency classification and such information will assist in decision making for upcoming general elections. Data from the 2006 census was configured into electoral constituencies and serves as a comparative benchmark to the latest census data.

Population and Demographic Trends Since 2006

Between the 2006 and 2011 Censuses, all constituencies from Tongatapu 1-10 experienced population increases while all other constituencies on the outer island divisions experienced population decreases. This indicates net out migration from the outer islands to Tongatapu or overseas. The constituency with the largest population growth since 2006 is Tongatapu 6, which grew by 12% or 814 persons. This constituency also had the biggest growth in the number of private households, increasing by 13% or 157 households.

The constituency with the biggest overall population is Tongatapu 3 with 8,009 persons. It was also the most populous constituency in 2006.

Onga Niua 17 remains the smallest constituency with 1,282 persons. It also experienced the biggest fall in population, decreasing by 23%.

In 2011 about 24% (24,229 people) of total population lived in urban areas while 76% (79,023) lived in rural areas. Tongatapu 1 and 3 and part of Tongatapu 2 and 4 are in urban areas.

Electoral Voters

Onga Niua 17 had the highest number of registered voters per capita in the 2010 general election at 92% of the population, followed by Ha'apai 12 with 90% of persons registered to vote. This is likely to be related to the small population size of these constituencies, as the larger Tongatapu constituencies had a lower rate of per capita registered voters. Tongatapu 3, for example, only had 73% of persons registered to vote.

Among those who did not register to vote, the main reason given for not registering was predominantly 'travel overseas', particularly in Tongatapu 7, where 45% of people who did not register gave overseas travel as the reason. However, it is notable that in Ha'apai 13, 38% of non-registered persons responded 'not interested' as their reason for not registering.

When asked where they would be mostly likely living in three years' time, between 87% and 92% of persons in Tongatapu constituencies planned to remain in Tongatapu. The second most likely destination is overseas. Non-Tongatapu constituency occupants predominantly wanted to stay in their current division, but about 7% of 'Eua and Ha'apai, 5% of Ongo Niua and 3% of Vava'u respondents wanted to go to Tongatapu. On average, 3% of outer island respondents were interested in going overseas. In contrast, there was very little interest in moving from Tongatapu to other constituencies with only 1% intending to move to Vava'u and the rest negligible. In addition there was very little interest in moving between the outer island constituencies.

Part 1: Background

1.1 Introduction

This report presents the 2011 Census of population and housing figures by Electoral Constituencies, the first population census by 5 year interval or after 5 year from the previous census in 2006 as requested by the Electoral Boundary Commission (EBC) according to its Act of 2010. Of this Electoral Boundary Commission Act 2010, Section 21 (1) & (2) states;

- (1) To facilitate the second determination of boundaries under this Act, the Minister responsible for the administration of the Statistics Act shall cause a general population census to be carried out before the next General Election.*
- (2) The Government Statistician (GS) shall certify and provide to the Commission such information, calculations and projections that the Commission may require to enable it to perform its functions under this Act.*

The next General Election noted in section 21 (1) above will be in November 2014. In a meeting of the EBC in February 2011, they requested the Statistics Department for a possibility to undertake a general population census as also noted in section 21 (1) above. Thus, the SD considered this request not only to meet the EBC request, but also for the benefit for the Kingdom as a whole. The SD therefore agreed such census to be held on 30 November 2011. Despite the time constraint for population census preparation, the following advantages were also considered:

- (i) Most of the SD staff members involved in the previous population census 2006 are still with the SD, thus minimal training and census preparation were required
- (ii) Fewer revisions/updates are necessary between 5 year interval censuses compared to 10 year interval censuses because fewer changes are likely to have occurred
- (iii) The ECB needed population figures to be available for its function well in advance the next General Election in November 2014
- (iv) A 2011 Census would occur 5 years after the previous census in 2006, providing more up-to-date time series and twice as many data points as compared to 10 year Censuses
- (v) The SD preferred to continue with 5 year interval population censuses, rather than 10 year interval, for the advantage mentioned above (the next Census will be in 2016)

1.2 Government approval

The SD first sought the Minister's approval to conduct this census. Once this approval was received, the census proposal was prepared with assistance of the SPC in Noumea. The proposal was then submitted to the Minister for endorsement by the Cabinet with the recommendations:

- (a) for this census be taken on 30 November 2011, and
- (b) SD to continue undertaking future population censuses at 5 year intervals.

As such, these recommendations were both approved by the Cabinet on 28 April 2011. To conduct a population census of the kingdom in 5 years intervals, rather than 10 years intervals, has been a long term goal of the SD. Historically, there were some irregular population censuses between the two World Wars, although there were earlier counts back to 1891. Thereafter, the population census in Tonga was conducted once every 10 years between 1956 and 2006.

1.3 Census preparations

Census preparations are detailed in Volume 1 with no major differences from earlier censuses. The EBC and EC each requested the following questions to be included in the census questionnaires:

The EBC questions;

Tonga's population pyramid has a wide base, meaning that a large percentage of people are in the younger age groups, while for each advancing age group the bars are increasingly shorter. As the cohorts age, they inevitably lose members because of death and may gain or lose members because of migration.

All Tongatapu constituencies population pyramids look similar to that of Tonga's population pyramid. The pyramids of 'Eua, Ha'apai, Vava'u and Ongo Niua constituencies are characterized by a distinctly smaller proportion of people aged 20 – 34. This may be the result of young people migrating from the outer islands to Nuku'alofa and Tongatapu and/or to overseas destinations. The narrowing of the 0 – 4 year – old population bars for Ongo Niua 17, Ha'apai 12 and Vava'u 14 are probably the result of a recent fertility decline (i.e. a reduction in the number of annual births). The difference in the population structures of the constituencies from the Tonga population structure are further illustrated by a further set of population pyramids which can be found in Appendix 1.
