1. MAIN FEATURES

1.1 General

Net overseas migration is one component of population change used to estimate the Tonga resident population, as are births and deaths. Officially the estimated residency is based on the concept of usual residence in Tonga. However, due to the unavailability of a departure card for Tonga, information on the length of stay of visitors or other people departing Tonga was not available. Therefore, we are unable to estimate the true level of net migration in terms of residents departing for greater than 12 months and persons coming to live or stay for greater than 12 months.

New departures cards were introduced in October 2010 at the airport, which will be covered in the 2011 publication.

1.2 Total International Arrivals and Departures

Chart 1 below shows the total arrivals and departures to and from the Kingdom of Tonga for the year 2005 to 2010.

Source: Immigration Department, Customs, Airport Terminal Services

The diagram shows an upward trend from 2005 to 2010 for both total arrivals and departures. Both arrivals and departures hit the highest point in 2009 before declining in 2010. In year 2007, both arrivals and departures declined however, in 2005, total arrivals were slightly more than total departures.

1.3 Total International Arrivals and Departures by Annual Percentage Change

Table 1 below shows the total arrivals and departures by annual percentage change for year 2005 to 2010.

From the table above we can see that total arrivals were at the highest point in 2009 with 99,813 persons arrived in the Kingdom, an increase of about 35% from 2005. Most of the increase was between 2007 and 2008 which was about 21%.

Similarly to total arrivals, total departures were at the highest point in 2009 with 99,306 persons leaving the Kingdom. Both total arrivals and total departures declined in 2010.

2. INTERNATIONAL ARRIVALS

2.1 International Arrivals by Transport Mode

The total international arrivals to the Kingdom by transport mode from 2001 to 2010 are shown on the graph below.

Source: Immigration Department and Customs

The diagram shows that international air arrivals dominated the total international arrivals to the Kingdom followed by arrivals on cruise ships and then arrivals by yachts. The air arrivals reached the highest point in 2008, which was attributed to the Celebration of His Majesty's George Tupou V Coronation in August 2008. Overseas dignitaries, visitors and Tongan living abroad travelled to the Kingdom to join the celebration.

The total arrivals by cruise ships have been increasing since 2001 and were at the highest point in 2009, with about 27,641 passengers, a year after the Coronation celebration. The arrivals by yachts were not changing much, as they tend to be in the Kingdom during May to October every year and then depart to other countries.
